MEMORANDUM FOR: Secretary to Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : F. W. M. Janney
Director of Personnel

VIA : Administrative Officer, Office of the Director

SUBJECT : Gifts from a Foreign Government

REFERENCE : Your Memo, Same Subject, dated 5 October 1976

1. In administering the provisions of Public Law 89-673 the Office of Protocol, Department of State, established the procedure whereby gifts received by Federal employees from officials of foreign governments which are valued at less than $50 may be retained by the recipient. These gifts must, of course, be reported but do not become property of the U. S. Government as do items valued at $50 or more. Therefore, the urn and tray may be retained in the Office of the Director until such time as Mr. Bush wishes them removed, either for his personal use or for storage within the Agency. A member of my Office will arrange for the removal and storage of items b, c and d as listed in referent.

2. If possible, would you please provide me with the names or titles of the donors as well as the country represented. This information, together with the date of presentation, is necessary only to complete the official Agency record.
